

Montgomery County Water Supply & Conservation Symposium

Facing the Change: Quality, Quantity and Source of Our Water Supply

Saturday, April 18, 2015

The Woodlands Township Board Chambers

PROGRAM

8:30 – 9:00	Registration
9:00 – 9:10	Welcome
9:10 – 9:35	The Future of Water Supplies in Texas Keynote Speaker: Kathleen Jackson, Board Director, The Texas Water Development Board
9:35 – 10:00	Climate Conditions of the State and What it Means for Texas John Nielsen-Gammon, Prof. of Meteorology at Texas A&M University and Texas State Climatologist
10:00 – 10:15	Q&A
10:15 – 10:30	Break, Coffee and Snacks
10:30 – 10:55	Back to the Source: Lake Conroe's Ability to Sustain a Growing Population Jace Houston, General Manager, San Jacinto River Authority
10:55 – 11:20	The Future of Drinking Water in The Woodlands Jim Stinson, General Manager, The Woodlands Joint Powers Agency
11:20 – 11:45	The State of the Groundwater in Montgomery County Paul Nelson, Asst. General Manager, Lone Star Groundwater Conservation District
11:45 – 12:00	Q&A, Wrap Up and Evaluations

